AN INTERESTING LETTER.

Dr. E. H. Naumann Writes from Dresden, Germany.

The editor of the Journal received a very interesting letter from Dr. Naumann this week which we are pleased to publish for Journal readers:

DRESDEN, July 16, 1905.

Dear Journalist:—

To comply with your wishes will try and jot down a few things, concerning my trip to the old fatherland.

June 8 about 9 o'clock a. m., our ship "Bluecher" started on its way across the big pond. The weather was bright and the bands, one on the ship and one on shore, played alternately farwell tunes. Many friends of those departing had come to bid a last farwell and tears could be seen in the eyes of many. But the majority were joyful and joined in with the band singing and waving handkerchiefs until the figures disappeared in the distance.

In the afternoon it grew more chilly and the ocean more restless and that most disagreeable illness, the seasickness, began to make its requisitions among the passengers, I, as luck would have it was one of its victims. For two days the company certainly made money on me, for I could not eat nor could I drink. Even smell of vitals that permeated the dining room was too much for me. Before the journey was over at least three fourths of the passengers had had the sea-sickness, although taken all in all the sea had not been very rough.

The 8 of June early in the morning, the last day on water, after leaving Cherbourg, France, we had the misfortune to run into a small sailing fishing vessel, which, we might have sunk. As it was it made a leak but they were able to pump the water out sufficiently to prevent it from sinking. Some of our crew were taken over to aid. The boat was then taken in tow by our steamer and pulled into Cuxhaven for repairs.

I do not believe that I am over sentimental and I know I am a patriotic citizen of lovely America, yet when our vessel moved closer and closer to the land of my boyhood, and I saw the many hundreds of people waving a friendly welcome and heard the band on shore greeting us with old familiar German melodies to which our band on board ship answered, it was with difficulty that I suppressed the tears that tried to force themselves out. All these friendly demonstrations appeal to one as a personal welcome to the old home after many years absence. This "Love for Fatherland", is a peculiar thing. Many years of absence will not destroy it.

After landing in Cuxhaven we went to Hamburg, where we stopped two days to see the city and surroundings. I was expecting to find a great business place, of course and the practical side of this busy age well developed, but the ideal, the higher and nobler side, I had prepared to find neglected. But not so, Hamburg has beautiful parks and all vacant spaces in and about the city have been made pleasing to the eye by artistic use of shrubbery, trees and fountains. The private grounds about dwellings are all very neatly kept, and in one street especially, in the residence portion, it seemed as if one were entering paradise so beautiful were the grounds and houses. Landscape gardening is further advanced in Germany than in America, I believe.

The city has a very fine picture gallery with many costly pictures in it. Art is well represented in Hamburg. Many who visit Germany make a mistake in not visiting Hamburg, only passing through. In and about Berlin we stayed three days. Would have stopped longer, but it started raining and could therefore not get around so well. Berlin is a fine city and has some, or at least one of the finest streets, I ever have seen. The "Stages Allee", the parks, mountains, fine buildings and all are very imposing and grand. All is as clean as a tar bar. Artistic museums of all kinds are represented of course. The populace of Berlin impressed me as a light-hearted people, a people who live from one day to the other, without much worry of tomorrow and enjoy every hour of it. They go late in the evening to their various places of amusement, and come late home in the morning, not early. We stopped at the Victory hotel, corner of "Under the Linden and Frederick Str.", where there is much travel and noise at all times, but it seemed especially so from two to six in the morning when the Berliners came home.

Potsdam with its old Historical landmarks, especially those of Frederick the Great's time we visited. The old castle at "Sans Souci", stands as he left it with everything in it. The old clock in the chamber, where he died at which it is said that he stepped when he passed away, still hangs there pointing out the hour of the passing away of that great man whose ideas and views of things were very much in advance of those of its contemporaries. Everything about Sans Souci, the park and all is laid on a great and beautiful scale.

From Berlin we went to Dresden. I believe we can say of Dresden that those who have seen Dresden and its rich surroundings can not otherwise but love it. It seems to be in the atmosphere to make one feel at home. There are many English speaking people visiting in Dresden at all times. The parks here too are marvels of beauty. Many new streets have been laid out and built up since I last saw Dresden in 1884 which at that time were fields. Progress is on hand every where. There is much more that I would like to say but my letter is getting lengthy and I must therefore close.

E. H. Naumann.

GENOA.

A baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Magnusen in Platte county.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Mollin and Miss Flora went to Bennett Monday where they will visit until Saturday.

Miss Lulu Kissel went to Silver Creek Monday where she will visit her parents until next week and then go to Hot Springs, South Dakota to remain until September 1st.

Harold Wake went to Spaulding Monday last to accept a position in a bank at that place.

Dan Corcoran went to Columbus and spent Sunday with Mrs. Corcoran who we are glad to report is gaining in health quite rapidly.

The republican county convention has been called to meet at Fullerton on Saturday, September 2. Genoa will be entitled to 24 delegates.

Silver Creek is building a new depot at that place and the inhabitants are becoming "all swelled up" over the event.

Mrs. Cynthia Thurston was called to Kearney Monday on account of the illness of her daughter, Mrs. L. J. Hendricks, who is suffering from a heart trouble.

P. E. Slaughter informs the Leader that if nothing happened to prevent Guy Slaughter left Manila on the 31st of July for a visit to the United States. He is expected to arrive in Genoa about the 1st of September.

The grain dealers report that wheat that was threshed before it had any rain on it is bringing 3 cents per bushel more than that threshed after it was wet and bleached. Who says that it does not pay to stack the wheat?

The body of Mrs. Sam Peterson of Woodville passed through Genoa Tuesday morning she having died at the hospital at Columbus on Monday. Mrs. Peterson had been in poor health for some time and a few weeks ago was taken to Columbus for treatment.

Joe Schrack, engineer for the Brook's threshing outfit, met with a painful accident the first of the week. He picked up a piece of board and attempted to break it across his leg and in so doing drove a nail that was in the board into his leg just above the knee with the result that he is now using crutches.

The members of the G. A. R. Post are making arrangements to attend the National G. A. R. encampment at Denver next month, in a body. They propose to rent a tourist car, which can be done for $30 per day, and on their arrival in Denver the car will be sublet and all of their disposed during their stay. They desire to secure early passages which will make their round trip including lodging cost each one less than $5 for a week. Almost as cheap as staying at home.

LINDSAY

The Opinion.

Mabel Ducey returned Saturday evening from her vacation in the east. H. N. Christensen this week sold a 120 acre farm to John Lund for a consideration of $2000.

Last Sunday while most of the Lindsay ball game were in Golden, nine husky young fellows drove in from the north and expressed a desire to eat up the local aggregation. Well, Joe Dancy didn't like to see anybody disappointed, so he told 'em that he was captain of the Lindsay team and would have his men on the diamond in a few minutes. Then he hustled around and got Danny Griffin, Dr. Evans, John Sweeney, Jack Finch, Ed Deegan and a few more of the old timers to help him, and—what do you think they did to those young sports from the north? Why, they just wiped 'em up to the tune of 17 to 1.

The younger generation in Lindsay will have to go some if they ever expect to give the old bucks any pointers.

The Opinion is informed on responsible authority that Eb Deegan went out to somebody's pasture this week to get a cow. The cow greeted him kindly, but her husband was at home and he objected strenuously to any interference with his family. It was about 300 yards to the fence but Eb beat old Taurus to it easily.

While the band boys were engaged in the regular weekly practice Wednesday evening the proceedings were interrupted by their wives and about twenty other uncontrollable, who came marching in and took charge of everything. They all had well filled baskets, and a dainty luncheon was spread at midnight. The evening and the beginning of the next day were pleasantly spent, dancing, "finch" and "panic" taking the lead as amusements. The occasion was so enjoyable that the "Lyric" will probably be the scene of many festive gatherings henceforth.

No shamuel peace. St. Petersburg, July 31.—The emperor has issued the following note in reply to an appeal from the clergy of Orichburg not to conclude a shameful peace: "The Russian people can rely on me. Never will I conclude a shameful peace, or one unworthy of great Russia."

The following are the principal points of an electoral system approved by the council of ministers for the proposed national assembly. The aim has been to elaborate a scheme eliminating as far as possible class representation. The only classes excluded from the franchise are soldiers, persons under the age of twenty-five years, foreigners, women, governors and vice governors of provinces, prefects and police authorities, nomads and persons deprived of civil rights.

General Shapoval has been relieved of command of the Third Siberian army corps.

Why, Then? "Did you finish your shopping today, my dear?" asks the model husband. "Yes, I think so," answers the trusting wife.

"You think so?" "Yes, I don't know, though. You see, I want to get my hat and there were so many and all of them so pretty that I got five of them."

"Five? Why did you do that?" "I really I must have lost my head."

"In that case, why get a hat at all?" — Chicago Tribune.

Rules For Writers.

Frederick W. Seward said that when he first started in at newspaper work Thurlow Wood said to him: "I will give you two rules to begin with. First, never write anything without some definite point and purpose; second, when you have written it, take your pen and go over it to see how many words and sentences you can strike out and how much you will thereby improve the article."

After the Honeymoon. He: We must try to keep up appearances. I suppose you don't want our friends to know that our marriage has been a failure? She: Oh, no. I wouldn't care to have them see that their anticipated happiness has been realized. New York Press.

Much as worthy friends add to the happiness and value of life, we must in the main depend on ourselves, and every one is his own best friend or worst enemy.

A LAND OF WONDERS.

The Sightseer Finds Many Things of Interest in California.

California has numerous natural bridges, caves, etc. of no little interest. The Mammoth Cave of Calaveras, discovered by miners in 1850; the Alabaster Cave; the Crystal Palace Cave, containing a number of attractive subterranean apartments, such as the bridal chamber, the Crystal Palace Room. Acuron apartment calls a Music Hall, where the deposits of aqueous origin not only take the form of organ pipes, sounding boards, etc., but emit, when struck, musical sounds and vibrations. Near this cave are two natural bridges which the tourist can visit and return to the railroad within half an hour. The only natural way to reach these scenes of interest is via "The Overland Limited Route," comprising the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific, now really one line. The only line running through trains to San Francisco from Omaha, its fast trains, arriving sixteen hours ahead of all competitors. Pamphlets and maps describing the wonders of California, and full information about the most comfortable and direct route to the Pacific Coast, can be obtained of E. L. Lomax, G. P. & T. A. Omaha, Neb.
